

2009 Downstate Illinois Nonprofit Conference- Thursday, August 27

The Downstate Illinois Nonprofit Conference is a unique opportunity for downstate nonprofit leaders to connect with national and regional thought leaders about the challenges and opportunities for the sector as well as share stories and strategies with peers to improve their individual organizations. Offered on a bi-annual basis, this conference is structured to meet the needs of nonprofits south of I80.

The 2009 Downstate Illinois Nonprofit Conference "Connecting Practices that Create Impact" will be August 27 and held at the I-Hotel in Champaign, Illinois. The conference will feature Heather McLeod Grant co-author of Forces for Good: The Six Practices of High-Impact Nonprofits and Jan Masaoka Director and Editor-in-Chief of Blue Avocado and past Executive Director of CompassPoint. Visit lumpkinfoundation.org for more details.
